Communications Director

On Friday, October 9, 2020, Principal Jones delivered a video message to our families updating them on what's happening at Peninsula Prep. During her video message, she informed parents that they would have a Parent Satisfaction Survey to complete, letting us know how they feel about Distance Learning so far. Here are the results of that survey.

1. What grade is your scholar in?

this is a great school that is needed in far Rockaway. All of the staff are hardworking and works in the best interest of the child. This school needs more funding so that there are more resources available to the students who need it.

Mikaela will not be in school until the governor opens all city schools and says they are safe.

No, thanks

Sometimes i notice my child on another screen on something else while the class is going on and i get upset.

October is here; may I know when 2020 NYC Middle school directory will be released. Thanks.

I have no question all concerns, just absolutely thankful for everything you guys have provided for my children this school each teacher I have encountered with is amazing! Stay safe and stay bless.

I just admire teachers so much more during this remote learning I've always admired them but having to do what they do with my own child gives me just a whole new insight to what they deal with. I honestly dont know how they do it. I am grateful my kids go to this school I never feel lost. Thank you!

Two concerns that i have is the kids that doesnt pay attention or distract the other kids need to be in their own break away room. Their parents need to help and be there with their child/ children. That make the other kids lose interest or focus in the class because their teacher has to keep calling those students out. The other is the school need to come up with a better way when handing stuff out. Its always when the scholars is in class and we either have to take them out of class to go up their or we just cant get their books. It should be when they have a half of day or make it a half of day to go get stuff. They say they have a lunch between 11:40 and 12:25 but that cuts into their lunch break and how about you have another
I'm satisfied can't complain!

No

Is the room repair completed?

Thank you to the entire PPA staff especially during these trying times. I can surely say that as a parent working during this period I felt very very supported by not only my son's teachers (which was a major stress reliever) but the entire staff! Whether it may be to support answering my million questions, Ms. Jones helping with questions on class Dojo, Mr. Fairley making sure that things are running smoothly. Overall thank a big thank you to you all!!!

Great job teachers

Great job K012

My daughter needs a device do you know when she will receive one?
